

While I am still in Australia nursing a broken ankle, life in Buliisa, Uganda is continuing on as usual.

Our children are, by all accounts, doing well in their classes and gearing up for end-of-year testing and other assessment. (Above: Lower Nursery)

Builders are completing a new staff house located down at the bottom of the property.

They are also constructing what will be the P4 classroom in 2016. The foundation is being laid for both the P4 and P5 classes, but P4 will be constructed first.

Ground staff are continuing to work on crop development, and our staff and children are getting the benefit of this with fresh maize, watermelons and other produce.

2016 Lower Nursery

Each year we take in a new class of children, and these children need sponsorship.

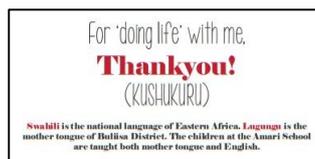

This is Ivan. He is living with his mother, grandmother and an aunt. His mother, who is a deaf mute, was abused, and his father offers no form of assistance. Ivan's mother and grand-mother work in their garden to help provide food for the family.

If you would like to help sponsor Ivan, or one of our other children, could you please contact us at admin@amari.org.au

Praise and Prayer Points

- Thank God that our Ugandan Board and management are handling things well in my absence.
- Praise God my ankle is definitely getting better, and I will soon, God-willing, be allowed to walk on it!
